Mr. O.—"All right, Ballard, as you are willing to arrange it that way, write me up for a $2000 Investment Insurance Trust Bond, and here's my note for $54.25, the deposit for the first six months. I may want to deposit once a year later." Mr. B.—"You can change any time you like. The doctor can meet you this evening." Ballard & Co., reliable insurance.

MARSHFIELD.

Deputy Sheriff J. Berton Pike was in Danville Wednesday, having official business with the Caledonia National bank.

The lawn party at J. W. Meers last evening, under the auspices of the L. O. G. T., was very well attended; a success socially and financially.

Marion Unwin, the 7 year old daughter of S. H. Unwin, fell from a window in the barn eight feet from the ground, and broke both bones of the lower right arm. Dr. H. S. Carver was called and reduced the fracture.

H. D. B. Dwyer recently met with a partial loss. While taking a load of fatted hogs to the depot one became so overheated that it had to be killed. The meat was good, however, and proved that there is no great loss without a small gain.

State Highway Commissioner J. O. Sanford of Stamford, was in town Thursday and with the selectmen and road commissioners inspected the highways. He expressed his entire satisfaction with the way the state highway money had been expended, and gave the road commissioners many valuable hints.

Notice to All Union Men. That the Congregational Church and the Baker house at Williamstown are non-union jobs.
